

Scammers on DarkNet

by Exposing Illegal Child Trafficking and Scammers (Notes) on Tuesday, February 12, 2013 at 10:08am

Watch out for the following scam targeting innocent Anons and friends who want to help catch pedophiles and child abusers.

Contrary to the clever sales pitch, not all of the targets of this scam will necessarily be pedophiles. Some could be child traffickers involved with organized crime groups like the Russian Mafia. These are groups that will not take kindly to someone interfering in their market place. Others could potentially be innocent people who are just having trouble adopting or the adoption process is taking too long.

And please note that 'money-making ops' whose goal is to commit fraud are neither Anonymous Ops nor are they LE Ops despite what this person says in his con.

Here is the document he's been distributing:

DarkNet Child Trafficking Scam. The Background

The paranoid imaginings of this seriously disturbed person and his desire to get revenge against a male Anon for trying to strongly dissuade him from continuing a Darknet Child Trafficking scam he had started, resulted in the doxing of 3 Anons, 2 males and 1 female, who don't hide. Others were later included and added to Kree Love's hit list simply because they refused to drink Kree's Kult of Liars Kool-Aid.

All of our actions since that time have simply consisted of standing up to and exposing the lies spewed by this Anonwhore, Kree Love, and his ignorant little group of middle-aged, sheeple-minded juvenile delinquents. This, of course, has resulted in Kree's Op being exposed as a result of his own actions. It has also resulted in Kree Love's cohorts typically sociopathic accusations that defending ourselves from their lies constitutes 'stalking and harassment'.

The female Anon who was falsely accused of exposing the op to the male Anon has been able to irrefutably prove that she wasn't involved in the exposure. She exposed the details after Kree Love doxed her and posted the dox all over the Internet because once he had done that she had no choice but give her side of the story.

As a result, the responsibility for exposures of his scam rest solely in his hands and no-one else's.

Introducing Kree Love in his own words:

The male Anon's 'harassment' and 'stalking' campaign against poor Kree.

I'm putting some 'SE' plays out there.. he just may have you to thank if it is not too late.. but just lay low , I appreciate that tidbit of info, I just need a direction to point the gun most times

[2/8/2013 5:29:54 PM]  [Another male Anon] sent EchelonPrices.pdf ***

There are numerous emails between the male Anon and Kree Love, many of which have been posted by Kree's cohorts and misrepresented as alleged evidence of 'stalking' and 'harassment', where the male Anon is strongly trying to dissuade Kree from his criminal pursuits.

Despite the fact that the dispute was between the male Anon and Kree, Kree Love has focused his part of the harassment campaign almost entirely on the female Anon. Other members of the group have focused on other people, in particular the Anon who exposed the Child Trafficking document. Kree Love's strategy has been to obfuscate things by falsely accusing the female Anon of doing what the male Anon is doing as well as misrepresenting the male Anons actions. The 'evidence' he provides is always of something the male Anon has said or done which he then uses to accuse the female Anon of 'harassing' or 'stalking' him. He has never provided any evidence that the female Anon has ever done anything to him other than defend herself against his public lies and the cyberharassment campaign which he instigated. He has also implied extortion of the female Anon was his objective.

While the grown adults that are covering for, participating in, enabling and/or supporting Kree's cyberharassment campaign shouldn't have to be reminded that supporting, condoning, enabling, etc. criminal activity by a teenager constitutes 'contributing to the delinquency of a minor' apparently those 'adults' do need such a reminder or don't give a shit about helping seriously disturbed kids or anyone else. They are quite convinced that his claims about himself being a 16 year old runaway from the UK who was living in New York, NY and Washington, DC until recently, are true.

There is evidence to indicate that he is not a teenager. The evidence indicates that he is a young adult with a history of cyberharassment who has been known to fly into rages over things as minor as someone being a better gamer than himself.

The people who were actively involved in this criminal enterprise and/or those who are defending them, participating in the cyberharassment campaign, and/or have defended them publicly are as follows:

Kree Love aka Krazium, et al (most of his sock accounts, like Ashley Mecca, are 'female' and he has numerous accounts)

Julie Ann Larson aka Rusalka Sireen aka Javiera Laila (on FB), JAL54321 on Twitter, et al of Pasadena and currently Los Angeles County, California

Note that Julie Ann Larson, when she is using the Javeria Laila alias, is currently impersonating a real person who does have a valid Twitter account under that name.

and some other chickenshits who jump up and screech periodically and then run and hide when confronted and exposed.

This is not a dox so no personal information that is available has been included. The concern here is the issue. However, there is enough information here to avoid them since they are all quite untrustworthy and completely corrupt, in my opinion. They are demonstrated liars and will quickly and without provocation stab 'friends' in the back.

To summarize the facts:

1. In November, 2012 Kree Love was actively recruiting people associated with Anonymous and anti-pedophilia activism for a Child Trafficking scam which he presented as mix of an Anonymous 'sting' and money-making op to supposedly 'catch pedophiles' on DarkNet. The female Anon agreed to participate not having all of the facts. It was at this time that Kree created the original Child Trafficking Price List which she saw. It was also seen by two other people who were not part of the November 'group' despite Kree's lie that he didn't distribute it to anyone else. Ironically, this fact was revealed in alleged 'evidence' posted by Kree's cohorts in the hundreds of posts attacking the three Anons all over the Net. There were quotes provided by two people who admitted to having seen the Price List that the Anon posted and having received it from Kree. Kree's cohorts exposed Kree's lie by posting these quotes, ignored it and continued targeting the three Anons. This is an indication of the depths of deception and stupidity represented in this group. The following is an image of the section of the paste-bin which was a conversation between Michael Babcock and Connie Wierick. Connie Wierick provided this quote and stated that it came from a friend of hers. Note that he states he saw the price list.

"Stay away from all Anon Anything anywhere. You said you would & you are on G+ Making Anon Groups.. People know how to make there own, so No Excuse.

2nd Kree has been 16 now for 3 Years. Don't let him fool You , He is a Scammer & always has been.. Now he has Thomas Cook & Jason involved In scamming People , To Sell Children Who Don't Exist at all..

There is No Children involved at all.. Its Just A Scam To Get Peoples Money & not Deliver what was Promised. Even though No children are involved , Its Still a Federal Offense...

Ive seen there Price List for children they made up. Far as i know they have successfully done this all ready a few times..

I Advise Not Getting Involved at all with any of it..."

After getting all the facts, that it was really a scam and there was no LE involvement or backup, the female Anon withdrew. She did not 'assist' in the 'op' nor did she expose it at any time before February 12, 2013. She exposed the details of the OP AFTER Kree exposed his own Op on Facebook and elsewhere by falsely accusing her of exposing it, doxing her, and started his little harassment campaign on February 8, 2013.

[11/3/2012 7:42:21 AM] Kree Love: we've created a store

[11/3/2012 7:42:24 AM] Kree Love: which sells children

Kree's Op was originally exposed on Twitter by LulzS3c at the time indicating that Kree's loose lips were already poking holes in his ship. This was also revealed in a quote provided by one of Kree's cohorts and posted. Since the account was shut down shortly after, the only copy of this is the one the female Anon copy/pasted into Skype when she asked Kree to explain what was going on.

Lulzkr3w @Lulzkr3w

We have information that #Anons are involved in child pornography and credit card theft, that #Anonymous is a front.

At this time Kree was trying to find someone to produce fake child porn so that he could use it in his Child Trafficking Scam.

2. In January, 2013, The male Anon was told about the Child Trafficking price list and the 'Op' by a mutual friend of his and Kree. A copy of the price list was sent to The Anon by this friend. The female Anon was not aware of this.

[2/8/2013 5:25:23 PM] The male Anon: kk... just get me that link pls.. perhaps some fear will help save Kree.. I'm putting some 'SE' plays out there.. he just may have you to thank if it is not too late.. but just lay low , I appreciate that tidbit of info, I just need a direction to point the gun most times

[2/8/2013 5:29:54 PM]  [another male Anon] sent EchelonPrices.pdf ***

A sound recording was also released of the person, a male, agreeing to hand over the Price List. He is a well known Anon with a lot of Anonymous connections which would explain why Kree would be too chickenshit to take him on and targeted the female Anon with lies instead. He apparently thinks she has money and she is not well known in Anonymous circles, therefore ripe for extortion.

3. On February 8, 2013, Kree Love, in a FB group, falsely accused the female Anon of exposing his op to the male Anon; harassing him for the previous two weeks and then doxed her without making any effort to find out what actually happened. She didn't dox him. As demonstrated below in detail his entire dox is based on lies intended to smear and assassinate her character and integrity. All hostile communications occurred AFTER February 8 and none were private. Previous to February 8 all communications both private and public were friendly. Kree has not provided a shred of evidence to the contrary. Every time he accuses the female Anon of harassment he deceptively provides 'evidence' of emails and other communications between him and the male Anon. He has never provided any between him and the female Anon because those harassing emails he whines about don't exist.

Kree Love:"I'd like to give a round of applause to [The Anons] for consistently threatening me over the past week or two. But for one [female] Anon, many thanks for attempting to destroy an Echelon operation, and I hope you enjoy your Dox this weekend."

4. In February, 2013, The male Anon released the Child Trafficking Price List document and distributed it.

5. On February 12, 2013, the female Anon BECAME The Investigating Anon's cohort because of Kree's lying dox and released an explanation of the DarkNet Child Trafficking Scam. She did not name Kree in the original document.

6. When Kree saw the Scammers on Darknet release, Kree was the one who broadcasted all over Facebook that the document and the attached Child Trafficking Price List provided by The male Anon was referring to the DarkNet Child Trafficking Scam.

By doing so he effectively admitted:

- a. that the document was his. If it wasn't why did he say it was his Op?
- b. it was genuine. If it wasn't why did he say it was his Op?
- c. that he was behind the Child Trafficking Scam. If he wasn't why did he say it was his Op?
- d. he even pointed out that the title of the document said, Project Echelon on it which is his little group.

7. Kree Love's Cult of Liars have since made all sorts of allegations about that document. There are screenshots of their posts to support this.

- a. First they defended the document and the Op.
- b. Later, they claimed the document had been modified.
- c. Later, they claimed the document had been faked.
- d. Around the end of April, 2013, some of them started implying the Op was a fabrication.

8. On April 25, 2013, an updated version of the Scammers on Darknet document was released which contains some evidence in the form of chat excerpts published by his cohorts, as well as details all of Kree Love's known DarkNet criminal enterprises and the scams he is/has either engaged in or expressed a desire to engage in.

The Scam.

Sales Pitch. He recruits people by claiming this is a mix of an Anonymous "sting" and money-making operation:

1. Tells them that they can make some money and catch pedophiles at the same time.
2. Claims that it's not really child trafficking because there are no real children involved.
3. Assures them that LE is aware of the scam and will step in to help if there's a problem.
4. Will report the victims who are presumed to be pedophiles buying children to LE.

How will the scam work?

Your role:

1. Set up an alias email account on Tor or Hushmail
2. Set up a Skype phone number
3. Post ads to sell children on DarkNet
4. Convince the buyers you're legit, send them the PDF, and get them to send money in advance

Their role:

5. 1 picks up the cash from WU
6. 2 does the bank transfers allegedly to you

This particular process allows those handling the cash to defraud you as well and it gives them a scapegoat to take the fall if the whole thing were to go south on them. You are the one who would have all of the direct contact with the pedophiles or undercover LEs whichever the case might be. The fact is that the only reason they need more than 1 person to implement this scam is to have this fall guy. They need someone to take the blame if they get caught. They're both teenagers. How easy it will be for them to blame the adults they've conned into being their frontmen/women.

According to discussions with lawyers:

1. LE will never support a scam like this nor would they protect anyone involved so his claim that they're involved appears to be quite unlikely and a lie.
2. It is fraud and illegal so his claim that you will be safe from prosecution is a lie.
3. Since the money constitutes illegal gains from the commission of a criminal act it would be evidence and no-one would be allowed to keep it so his claim that you can use this as a means to make money is a lie.

Additional facts:

While the victims of the fraud might be pedophiles there is in fact no guarantee that they are. They might also be completely innocent people who are having trouble adopting through normal channels (like gay couples) or it's taking too long. While this is also illegal it doesn't make them pedophiles or deserving of being defrauded of thousands of dollars.

Human trafficking is operated by Organized Crime (Russian Mafia and others). Drawing their attention could have serious consequences to this third person recruited to handle the direct contact. Kidnap, torture and murder for example. Someone mistakenly thinking they have LE backup could find themselves in serious trouble.

The CIA and the RCMP currently have active investigations in progress on DarkNet, particularly the Silk Road, to target both pedophiles and human traffickers.

You could get caught in one of those nets.

And frankly, if LE were involved it would likely be considered entrapment.

Don't fall for it folks. This guy is lying to you.

If he's lying to you get you to participate you can be sure that he'll make you the scapegoat for all of it if any one of you got caught.

The story told by Kree Love and his Cult of Liars continues to evolve and change as time goes on.

They provide reams of irrelevant evidence that doesn't support any of the claims they make, if anyone takes the time and bothers to actually look at it. Ironically, it frequently supports the claims in this document. As a result, some of that evidence was included in here.

This story has remained virtually identical to the day it was first told. More detail from other sources as the information comes in has been provided, and those other sources are mostly Kree's cohorts.

DOX: "We warn everyone whom comes into contact with either [redacted, Anons] to be incredibly vigilant and not to discuss any private matters or concerns to them, as they will use these against you publicly."

The above statement is psychological projection on Kree's part. Loose lips sink ships and there are no looser lips around than Kree Love as the evidence itself indicates.

Kree Love and his cohorts are the ones that people should not confide in because everything goes public eventually with Kree. Either because he leaks it through gossip, or he pisses someone off with false accusations, threatens them and then that person turns around and leaks all of his gossip.

He is also running another DarkNet scam selling Fake IDs and conveniently for him the sources of his competition and his competition have all been arrested and put out of business (as of last fall and according to him).

[8/29/2012 11:03:19 AM] Kree: he's been busted.

[8/29/2012 11:03:32 AM] Kree: All my competitors, competitors clients, and business partners have been arrested.

[8/29/2012 11:03:34 AM] Kree: over the past 2 weeks.

[8/29/2012 11:05:03 AM] Kree: DMV, State Dept', Home Office Connects.

[8/29/2012 11:05:11 AM] Kree: All vendors and clients have been arrested.

[8/29/2012 11:05:16 AM] Kree: But my insiders haven't.

Whether he actually provides ID and this isn't just another scam is also questionable.

1. Many people do not know this, but to become a United States citizen, a foreigner needs to more about US history than any American does. Studying for the citizenship test is the most difficult thing ever because there are thousands of bits of information to memorize and 100 questions to the test that must be correct to obtain citizenship. Not to mention, the travel to a testing site can be rather expensive. Often times, people choose to live here illegally because it is easier than taking the test that 98% of Americans would fail. Buying yourself a new life with fake citizenship papers is much easier, and most cannot tell they are fake.
2. With fake citizenship papers, you will have a fake birth certificate, marriage certificate, degrees—if you want them—lease agreements, bank accounts, credit cards, and all of the other information that you would need to live in the United States legally. The only vital piece of information that you would not receive is a social security number. Once you have all the rest of the information, you should not have much trouble obtaining a social security card if you have the rest of the information needed. Proving your citizenship with the use of these fake documents, you will be able to stay in America, get a job, go to school, or live peacefully knowing that you have some kind of documentation that you can present to someone should they ask. Your new life will hopefully be better than the one you left because you paid for it to be so. You can get a clean slate that most cannot have, and you will have avoided taking one of the most difficult tests in the whole world. That is something that most people are very relieved for. Once you fail the test, you have to wait six months to re-take it and many do not have that kind of time.

Introduction

My name is Kree Love, and I obtained two Professional Certificates in Information Technology from Stanford University at the ages of 14 and 15. I'm the former Chief Executive Officer of the 101 Gaming Clan; a New York based eSports Corporation. I am highly committed to providing an excellent service and consultation in regards to Network Security, Emerging Threats, DDoS Mitigation, and Encrypted VoIP Communications. I also provide consultations for businesses and individuals wanting alternative payment solutions like Liberty Reserve & Bitcoin (BTC). I'm currently working on a pay-per-project basis as a Network Security Consultant and pay-per-hour basis for consultations regarding alternative payment solutions. For any inquiries, contact me at kree@love.com and we'll arrange a meeting.

Note that he has since revised his profile information, removed his and his cohort, Ashley Meccas' names from the TVID (Fake ID) website and made other changes to hide what he's been up to.

He's also removed all of the alleged IT skills he's been claiming to have for several years after being repeatedly confronted with that lie.

The rest of the cons and frauds are still in place.

He has now decided to place a 'bounty' on the female anon's head which includes ensuring that she is permanently prevented from creating new content exposing him.

This, of course, will be impossible for any takers to do unless someone is willing to accept less than 10K to make a lifetime commitment of harassment or commit murder. This is an act of desperation and done in the knowledge that he's lost this particular scam he's been running.

He is being exposed and more exposures will come.

Since 2010 he's been impersonating the UK teenager, Kree Love and fraudulently using both his identity and his biography.

His real identity which is 30 year old Antonio F. Lopez of Los Angeles, California, is exposed here:
